Row 2.) Turn, ch 1, sc in top of the 1st dc, * dc in the next sc, sc in the next dc, Repeat from * across ending with dc in the last sc. You will always start a row with a sc and end a row with a dc, Always sure you sc in a dc and dc in a sc across on each row.

Repeat Row 2 until piece measures 10 1/2", ( 13 1/2", 16 1/2" ) long, Fasten off your main color.

TRIM:

Attach trim color in the corner st to work down the side, ch 2, 2 hdc in the same st, Working down the side * 2 hdc in the side of the dc of the dc row, skip the sc row,* repeat from to the end, do 3 hdc in the corner st, hdc in each st across the bottom to the end 3 hdc in the corner st, Working up the side * 2 hdc in the side of the dc of the dc row, skip the sc row,* repeat from to the end, do 3 hdc in the corner st, hdc in each st across the top, sl st in the top of the first ch 2, Fasten off, Weave in ends.

Bunting:

Lay finished blanket Flat with back side to you, Fold in to Thirds, Whip stitch the bottom closed.

Now I attached the ribbon around one stitch about halfway up on the side. I tied the ribbon in a knot around the stitch so it will not come off. Then feed one end of the ribbon through the trim work and tie into a bow. After ribbon is tied Cut the ribbon lengths a little longer than the bottom of the bunting, so if the ribbon needs some length as to wrap the baby.
